DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, April 28.

Pope St. John Paul II declared in the Jubilee Year 2000 that in the universal Church, the Second Sunday of Easter will be known going forward as 'Divine Mercy Sunday'.

What is meant by 'Divine Mercy' and why do we Catholics celebrate it? The Church's teaching on Divine Mercy is rooted in Sacred Scripture, especially in the Gospel truths surrounding the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus. Divine Mercy refers to the deep, merciful love of God as revealed in Jesus. John Paul II said that Divine Mercy sums up the whole Easter mystery.

The devotion to Divine Mercy comes to us through the writings of St. Faustina, a humble Polish sister of Our Lady of Mercy, who lived from 1905 to 1938. She reported having visions of Jesus and conversations with him, and they have since been published in the book, The Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska.

Jesus indicated to St. Faustina on numerous occasions that he desired that a feast day be dedicated to the Divine Mercy. Those who turn to Jesus' mercy on Divine Mercy Sunday receive the special grace of having their souls washed as clean and pure as at the moment of Baptism. Complete remission of sin and punishment is granted.

In order to receive this special grace of Divine Mercy, one must first receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday, and turn to Jesus with trust and confidence in his merciful love. One might ask if reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday is essential in order to receive the grace. While many may wish to do so, for those who have already received the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent and avoided serious sin in the meantime, it is not imperative.

Our parish Divine Mercy Celebration will take place as follows next Sunday, April 28:

1:30 - 3:00 p.m.	Sacrament of Reconciliation
2:50 p.m.	Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
3:00 p.m.	Chaplet of Divine Mercy, followed by Benediction, and then Veneration of the Relic of St. Faustina

Come and join in this beautiful celebration of our merciful, loving God! Invite a friend, all are welcome!

THE EMPTY TOMB

(The Easter Vigil offers seven Old Testament readings, a New Testament reading, plus the Gospel. The Easter Sunday Mass also has options to choose from.)

All four Gospels speak of women going to the tomb on Sunday morning and finding angels there instead of the body of Jesus. In Luke the angels say to the women, “Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised.”

The empty tomb is one of the most powerful symbols in all the Scriptures, probably because a tomb is usually so absolute, so final. When Jesus rose from the dead, he gained a double victory. He conquered death; death is no longer the end, and therefore it has lost its power to inspire despair. At the same time, he overcame sin once for all.

For our part, we need to enter into that triumph by continually accepting the salvation acquired for us. This is easier said than done, which explains why so many private revelations, including La Salette, draw us back to this truth.

We have been set free. We are no longer imprisoned by or entombed in sin. In Romans 6, St. Paul wrote: “We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him... For sin is not to have any power over you.”

The message of La Salette is addressed to people who have yielded to the power of sin by turning away from the love of God. Even today, the title of Mary as “Reconciler of Sinners” is validated as pilgrims visiting La Salette shrines throughout the world turn back to God. This is no easier today than it was in 1846. It takes a powerful grace to turn a heart of stone to a heart of flesh. But Mary’s tears at La Salette can soften the hearts of those who might otherwise resist her words.

St. Paul writes: “Death is swallowed up in victory;” and, in another place, “You too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.” In this way we acquire a new self-image. Yes, we are still sinners, but we are not defined by our sin.

Rather, we are defined by the supreme moment in the life of Jesus, his resurrection. His triumph is our triumph. His empty tomb is our empty tomb.

Alleluia!
