CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING: Wednesday mornings, from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., as we explore and discuss Catholic Social Teaching. Because Christian faith is an embodied and lived faith, and not just a set of philosophical principles, the Church teaches that we are to be active agents in bringing about a society in which there is justice for all, especially the helpless and the poor.

The seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching we will discuss are:

- the dignity of the human person
- the call to family, community and participation
- human rights and responsibilities
- the option for the poor and vulnerable
- the dignity of work and the rights of workers
- solidarity with our brothers and sisters
- care for God's creation

We will look at what Scripture tells us about these themes, examine Church teaching and share practical experience and application. Meeting dates are October 9, 16, 23, 30, November 13, 20, and December 4 and 11. If you cannot attend all, join us for as many as you can!

The program will be led by Kathy Russo. If you are interested in attending, or have questions, please contact her at adultfaithformation2@gmail.com or call her at (508) 385-3252, x 14. All are invited and welcome!
