Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do.

There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIOCESE

Cardinal Ayuso Guixot invites believers of all religions and people of good will to observe a day of prayer, fasting, and works of charity on Thursday, May 14, 2020 to implore the Divine to help humanity in overcoming the COVID-19 pandemic. This initiative was begun by the Higher Committee of Human Fraternity and endorsed by Pope Francis on May 3, 2020. In order to prevent the risks of contagion, this day of prayer does not include any common public manifestation but rather will be lived by each one in his/her own interiority, placing himself/herself before God and his/her conscience.

79th Annual Catholic Appeal
DIOCESE OF FALL RIVER

The 79th Annual Catholic Appeal has been postponed to June 1 - July 31, 2020. We will keep you updated with further information as it becomes available. Please note, you will be receiving your pledge information directly from the Diocese.

A PRAYER TO COMBAT THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

We come to You in our weakness.
We come to You in our fear.
We come to You with trust.
For You alone are our hope.

We place before You the disease present in our world.
We turn to You in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into Your Eternal Home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in Your care.

Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.

Amen.
